Ruxandra DEMETRESCU: PhD, Professor of History and Theory of Art, Head of the Doctoral School, National University of Arts, Bucharest, Romania

Ruxandra Demetrescu, art historian, is professor of art history and theory at the Department of Doctoral Studies of the National University of Arts in Bucharest, Romania, where she teaches art theory, museum studies and modern Romanian art. She was the Rector of the National University of Arts in Bucharest (2006–2012) and the first Director of the Romanian Cultural Institute in Berlin, Germany (1999–2003). Her research focuses are the history of art theories in the German-speaking space (Konrad Fiedler, Alois Riegl, Aby Warburg, Walter Benjamin) and Romanian inter-war artistic modernity. She held the Arnheim Professur at the Humboldt University in the fall of 2012. She coordinated research projects (Lost Museums. Collectors and Collecting in Romania at the End of the 19th and Beginning of the 20th Centuries, 2006-2007; VISART, Platform for Conservation of Contemporary Art, 2012-2016) and curated solo shows of contemporary Romanian artists (among which Closed Doors, Open Envelopes. Iosif Király – Early Works, 1975-2000, Museum of Contemporary Art Bucharest, April - September 2018). She has published numerous texts in Romanian contemporary visual artists' exhibition catalogues.
